A word about risk

The value of equity securities in the fund's portfolio will fluctuate and, as a result, the fund's share price may decline. Equity securities may decline in value because of an increase in interest rates or changes in the stock market.

Mutual funds are subject to risks and fluctuate in value. Please see the fund's prospectus for additional risks.

Bond prices are sensitive to changes in interest rates, and a rise in interest rates can cause a decline in their prices.

High-yield, lower-rated securities generally entail greater market, credit/default and liquidity risks, and may be more volatile than investment-grade securities.

The quantitative models and analysis used by the fund may perform differently than expected and negatively affect fund performance.
